CEF – convinced by history and the present reality – believes that the viability of our Catholic schools is largely dependent on the support and involvement of our priests. Our seminar will include workshops dealing with the following topics:

- Conciliar and Papal Teaching on Catholic Education
- The History of Catholic Education in the United States
- The Priest's Presence in the School Community (Students, Faculty, Administration, Parents)
- The Priest as the Public Relations Man of the School
- Financial Concerns
- Models of Governance and Best Practices

“This is a most needed initiative, and I hope you obtain a healthy response from the dioceses.”

Cardinal Sean O’Malley, CEF board member, Archbishop of Boston

“The role of the priest in shaping the identity and mission of our Catholic schools is indispensable. This summer’s CEF conference is sure to give excellent guidance to our priests in carrying out this role with renewed dedication and wisdom.”

Most Rev. James Massa

Rector, St. Joseph Seminary, New York
